

Dear FCC.....Just letting you know that I support the right of XM radio to broadcast traffic and weather channels. as well as the other great programs that they have. It's been great to finally have quality radio broadcasting without all of the fluff and commercials the local stations have. And I don't mind paying a resonable price for that quality.